IP Addresses and Cookies

Ipswich Parking Services will not need to collect your data through the use of cookies although we may collect that data due to the software that runs the website. We will not need to use the data collected and the data will not be used for advertising purposes from ourselves nor any company that we work alongside of.

The small collection of data is used to analyse the use of the website and to improve on services that Ipswich Parking Services provide. General internet usage is collected by using a cookie file which is stored on the hard drive of your computer.

Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive. Cookies enable us:

- To estimate usage patterns including times of use. This helps Ipswich Parking Services to provide a smoother service at a possible peak time.
- To store information about your preferences, but to not save any personal information about you as a person or any details added into any data boxes.
- To speed up your searches on how to find us.
- To recognise you when you return to our site. This allows us to figure a pattern as to how the customer base is working where applicable.

You may refuse to accept cookies by activating the setting on your browser which allows you to refuse the setting of cookies. However, if you select this setting you may be unable to access certain parts of our site. Unless you have adjusted your browser setting so that it will refuse cookies, our system will issue cookies when you log on to our site.
